Alice Rose Glover, mother, grandmother, guidance department secretary

Alice Rose Glover of East Aurora died May 30, 2013 after a lengthy battle with ovarian cancer. She refused to give up hope even in her final days and was, and forever will be, an inspiration to all who knew her. She was 69.

Mrs. Glover was born in New Castle, Pennsylvania to James and Cora Lutton on June 24, 1943. Her family moved to Ithaca, where she graduated from high school and married her husband, Richard Glover, more than 51 years ago. They made their home in East Aurora where Mrs. Glover worked at the high school, first as a library aide and then as a secretary in the Guidance Office. She thoroughly enjoyed working in an environment with young adults and is remembered by many of them for her warmth, smile, and caring nature.

Her greatest accomplishment was the special relationships she fostered with all of her grandchildren. She took such joy in making sure they had countless experiences and adventures.

Mrs. Glover is survived by her husband Richard; her children Michael, Brian (Khalifah) and Kevin Glover and Christine (Martin) Gillespie; her sister Connie (James) Valentine; and her 10 cherished grandchildren, Jennifer (Mike) Falkler, Sara (Paul) Dorey, Katie and Emily Glover, Fatir and Aria Glover, and Riley, Larkin, Griffin and Cullen Gillespie. Mrs. Glover was preceded in death by her parents, Cora and Jim.

A private burial will be held at Oakwood Cemetery on June 23, 2013 followed by a celebration of her life at the Roycroft Inn for family and friends from 5 – 8 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to The Hospice Foundation of WNY, 225 Como Park Blvd, Buffalo, NY 14227. The family wishes to extend their gratitude to Hospice Buffalo for their support in Alice's final days.

Arrangements were under the direction of Comfort Funeral Home, Inc., South Wales. Family and friends are invited to leave a special memory and condolences to Alice's family at www.comfortfuneralhome.com.
