(Nicholas) Darling of Locke, Jacquelyn Rae Brashear of Groton; and beloved grandson, Lucas Raymond Darling of Locke, NY. Also surviving Angela are three sisters, one brother, and nieces and nephews. Angela was predeceased by her brothers, Charles, Constantine (Dino), and James Neferis; sisters, Mary Koutros and Sophie G. Neferis. Angela graduated from Ithaca High School in 1961 and Browne's Business School in Hempstead, NY. She worked as the business secretary in the Department of Applied and Engineering Physics at Cornell University. She also worked at the Ward Reactor Laboratory at Cornell University and Interlakes Finance Company.

During her childhood, Angela worked at her parents' grocery store, Neferis's Red & White, in Collegetown. She was a well-known fixture in the Collegetown community, primarily for her sense of humor and radiant smile.

Angela's passions centered on her family. She was a devoted, loving wife, mother, and grandmother. She will be especially missed by her grandson, Lucas, who she spent many hours playing with, loving, and teaching Greek to.

She was also an exceptional friend. She would always devote time to those who needed a listening ear. She was very kind and thoughtful and would always lend a helping hand. She was also a wonderful cook, always making sure no one left hungry. She enjoyed gardening and maintained a beautifully landscaped home. She was also very crafty, always making decorations for all the holidays and special occasions. Angela also enjoyed animal watching, especially deer.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m., Wednesday, August 16th, 2006, at St. Catherine's Greek Orthodox Church, 120 W. Seneca St., Ithaca, with the Reverend Stephen Lilley officiating. Friends may call at the Shurtleff Funeral Home, 103 Lincoln Ave., Groton, on Tuesday evening, August 15th, from 6 - 8 p.m. A Trisagion service will be held at 7:30 p.m.

The family would like to extend sincerest gratitude to Doctors Ann and John Costello and their wonderful staff. Also, thank you to the staff at Cayuga Medical Center, especially the ICU staff. Donations may be made to the American Lung Association and to the Arthritis Foundation.
