No Photo Available

Adam "Butch" Carman Jr., of 389 Michigan Hollow Rd., died Friday, February 16, 2001 at his home. He was born in Ithaca, son of the late Adam and Leona Howard Carman. He was also predeceased by his brother, Lyle Carman

Butch retired as supervisor of Parks & Forestry for the City of Ithaca in 1995 after 36 years of service. He enjoyed building and flying radio control airplanes, working on his 1934 Buick and 1934 Ford street rod and was an avid golfer.

Butch is survived by his wife, Roxie Carman; his son, Brian (Laura) Carman; daughter Belinda (Robert Layman) Carman; stepson, Raymond (Jeannette) Hubbard; stepdaughter, Rhonda (Robert) Cornish; and 10 grandchildren. He is also survived by his brother, Walter (Shirley) Carman; his sisters, Betty (Joseph) Nages, Josephine (Walter) Hurst and Beverly (Donald) Coon; his sister-in-law, Alberta Carman; his friends, Carol Johnson, Carol Carman, John Debell and Dave and Sandy Russell; and several nieces and nephews.

Private funeral services will be held on Tuesday at Bangs Funeral Home. Burial in Frear Memorial Park will be delayed until spring. In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations in Butch's memory be made to any local charity that would benefit our area's youth.
