Dennis (Denny) O'Neil

Jacksonville, Dennis (Denny) O'Neil, formerly of Jacksonville, NY, died at Pittsburgh Hospital March 10, 2008, after a truly courageous battle with Lymphoma Cancer. Denny never complained and always had an upbeat attitude as he fought the fight for his life. His funeral was held at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Export, PA, on March 15.

Denny was "Mr. Antiques" in Jacksonville and surrounding area for 25-years. His knowledge in that profession is unsurpassed. He was assisted day in and day out by his wife, Patti. They were a great team!

When not antiquing, Denny enjoyed fishing at Cayuga Lake—and simply the beauty and nature of this Finger Lakes Region. He also transported his wife, Patrice, and son, Corey, to Puerto Rico to live for a stint at commercial deep sea fishing.

Denny & family returned to the Pittsburgh area for the past several years, until his passing, to again work at his profession: antiques – with Patti and Corey. He also cherished the four years of his son Corey's athletic success at Salisbury University, Maryland, Lacrosse Team. Denny and Patti attended each game with much happy enthusiasm.

Denny's parents: Mildred and Robert O'Neil predeceased him. Denny is survived by his wife, Patrice O'Neil, and son Corey of Export, PA, and his sister, Jerilea O'Neil Day, Hector, NY, Niece Lynn Porter, Ovid, NY and nephew Lee Garfield, Aspen, CO. He is also survived by children from a previous marriage: Brian, Coleen, Stacey, and Kelly. Also Patrice's mother and father, who helped Patti care for Denny weeks before his death, and Patti's brothers and sisters who were close to Denny and also mourn his loss.

For condolences: Patrice O'Neil, 5804 Claridge Export Road, Export, PA 15632. Denny is greatly missed!
