

JAMES RICHARD LEHMER

JAMES RICHARD LEHMER

Transfer from Champaign Senior High School, Champaign, Illinois, 1959; Intramurals 4; Junior Class 3; Senior Class 4; Spanish Club 4.

James Richard (Dick) Lehmer died in December 2001. At the time of his death he was a resident of Grand Valley, Missouri, according to his brother Steve, IHS '64.

Dick moved to Ithaca with his family in 1959 from Champaign, Illinois, when his father, Dr. Lehmer answered an ad in the JAMA for a school physician in the Ithaca School System. Dick joined the IHS Class of '61 as a junior. He took part in Junior Class, Senior Class, Intramurals, and Spanish Club.

After graduating from Ithaca High, Dick returned to his family's home state of Nebraska where he attended the University of Nebraska. His marriage ended in divorce. For many years Dick taught history and psychiatry in the Kansas City School District. He was ill for many years and died from complications of diabetes.
