JOYCE ANN LOOMIS

Future Homemakers 1, 2; Honor Roll 1; Senior Class 4.

Waterville: Joyce A. (Loomis) Joyce, 70, of Stafford Ave., passed away Saturday, January 4, 2014 at the Harding Nursing Home in Waterville. She was born December 29, 1943 in Ithaca, NY, a daughter of the late Joseph Loomis and Aretta Hoover Loomis. She was a graduate of Ithaca High School. Joyce was a homemaker who devoted her life to caring for her family. Spending time with her children and grandchildren was her greatest joy. A resident of Waterville for many years, she was well known and had many friends in the community and at the nursing home. Joyce was a member of St. Bernard's Church in Waterville. Surviving are her husband, Paul F. Joyce of Waterville; her mother, Aretta Gibben of Ft. Myers, FL; her children, Debra and Christopher Harrison of North Brookfield; David and Patty VandeBogart of Englewood, FL; Brian and Reina VandeBogart of Cresthill, IL; Paul and Tabitha Joyce of Venice, FL; brother and his fiancée, Gary Loomis and Liz Dunn of Ft. Myers, FL; brother and sister-in-law, Dale and Lori Loomis of Endicott; several grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews. A Memorial Service will be held at the Harding Nursing Home, 220 Tower St., Waterville on Friday, January 17, 2014 at 10am. There will be a celebration of her life at the Harrison home, 9751 Ouleout Rd., North Brookfield following the service. Interment will be private at the convenience of the family. Contributions in her memory may be made to the Harding Nursing Home. Arrangements have been entrusted to Burgess & Tedesco Funeral Home, 210 E. Main St., Waterville.
