Judith Mary Tilton, 58, of 9A Wildflower Drive, Ithaca passed away at home surrounded by family after a courageous battle with cancer.

She was predeceased by her parents, Douglas W. and Marguerite C. (Yaple) Stone Sr. and brother, Thomas A. Stone. She is survived by her loving husband, Bruce Tilton; daughters and sons-in-law, Jennifer Stage at home, Wendy and Lance Livermore of Trumansburg, Cherie and Larry Clark of N.C.; brothers and sisters-in-law, Richard and Gwen Stone of Horseheads, Douglas and Shirley Stone Jr. of Ithaca; sisters and brothers-in-law Patricia and Glenn Darling, Dorothy and Bill Benedict, Susan and Butch Mix, all of Ithaca; grandchildren, Michael, Tyler, Kaitlin, and Kyle; several nieces and nephews.

Judith was a 1961 graduate of Ithaca High School. She was retired from Cornell University with over 15 years of service in the Mechanical Engineering Dept. Judith later worked as a medical transcriptionist at Dr. Zelko's office in Ithaca. She supported the Breast Cancer Alliance and the Relay for Life. Judith enjoyed line dancing, golfing and bowling, but most importantly the time that she spent with her family and friends. She will be missed for her wonderful sense of humor.

Friends are invited to call at the Herson Funeral Home, 110 S. Geneva St., on Friday, December 28, from 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. A Mass of Christian Burial will take place on Saturday, December 29, 10 a.m. in the Immaculate Conception Church. Rev. Leo Reinhardt will be officiating the services. In lieu of flowers, the family has requested donations may be directed to Hospicare, 172 E. King Rd., Ithaca, NY 14850 in Judith's memory.
