Lars Kallstrom Sr. lost his battle with cancer February 8th, 2016. Born May 5th, 1943, to the late John B. and Mary S. E. Kallstrom, Lars Sr. spent his youth on the family farm in Slaterville Springs, NY, where he enjoyed the outdoors, becoming an avid hunter and angler.

Graduating from Ithaca High School, he attended Paul Smith College of Hotel Management, starting what became a career in Real Estate with his life-long friends at Kimball Real Estate. Lars cherished his many friends, though his heart lay with his only son Lars Jr., who passed away before him unexpectedly. Lars Sr. is survived by his brother John and sister-in-law Mary; his sister Linda Carpenter, grandson Kelsey, and numerous nieces and nephews. We will remember Lars as a dedicated and devoted son, father, grandfather, business partner, and confidant. You will be eternally missed. Services will be held in May, 2016. Bangs Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Lars Kallstrom Sr. 72, died February 8, 2016. Graveside services will be held Saturday June 4, 2016 at 1:00 PM at Pleasant Grove Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family request donations to the S.P.C.A of Tompkins County. Bangs Funeral Home will be in charge of arrangements.
